Message Summary:

- Since we have been set free, we are called to help others experience that freedom.

Read The Bible Together - Key Verses:

O Lord, oppose those who oppose me. Fight those who fight against me. Put on your armor, and take up your shield. Prepare for battle, and come to my aid.

Psalms 35:1-2

Such love has no fear, because perfect love expels all fear. If we are afraid, it is for fear of punishment, and this shows that we have not fully experienced his perfect love. We love each other because he loved us first. If someone says, “I love God,” but hates a fellow believer, that person is a liar; for if we don’t love people we can see, how can we love God, whom we cannot see?

1 John 4:18-20

“But we are descendants of Abraham,” they said. “We have never been slaves to anyone. What do you mean, ‘You will be set free?’” Jesus replied, “I tell you the truth, everyone who sins is a slave of sin. A slave is not a permanent member of the family, but a son is part of the family forever. So if the Son sets you free, you are truly free.”

John 8:33-36

For you have been called to live in freedom, my brothers and sisters. But don’t use your freedom to satisfy your sinful nature. Instead, use your freedom to serve one another in love.

Galatians 5:13

Take Next Steps Together - Discussion Questions:

- What are your thoughts on the comment that fear is your enemy?

- How do you deal with fear in your own life? In the small situations and the big?
- What emotions do you have when you hear the words “enslaved in sin?”
- Does the concept of freedom from our sin bring you any kind of emotions (leader, think through and prompt toward things like joy, security, safety etc)
- Jesus died so we could be FREE! But that freedom isn’t just given TO us - God wants it to flow THROUGH us to others, what does it look like for your freedom to flow to others?
- What conversations do you need to have this week with people in your life to help them towards the freedom that you have?

Pray Together - Prayer Focus Points:

- Pray for any fears in the hearts of your J-Group members
