10A final word: Be strong in the Lord and in his mighty power. 11Put on all of God’s armor so that you will be able to stand firm against all strategies of the devil. 12For we are not fighting against flesh-and-blood enemies, but against evil rulers and authorities of the unseen world, against mighty powers in this dark world, and against evil spirits in the heavenly places.

13Therefore, put on every piece of God’s armor so you will be able to resist the enemy in the time of evil. Then after the battle you will still be standing firm. 14Stand your ground, putting on the belt of truth and the body armor of God’s righteousness. 15For shoes, put on the peace that comes from the Good News so that you will be fully prepared. 16In addition to all of these, hold up the shield of faith to stop the fiery arrows of the devil. 17Put on salvation as your helmet, and take the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.

18Pray in the Spirit at all times and on every occasion. Stay alert and be persistent in your prayers for all believers everywhere.

PRAY SOMETHING LIKE THIS...

By the power of the blood of Jesus and the authority of HIS word and the protection of His righteousness, I speak to (_____), You have no rightful place in my life! You are a deceiver and have lied to me long enough. I give up trying to control you on my own, and throw you back into hell where you belong. You were never meant for me! Jesus sees me as precious and I am beloved. His opinion holds first place in my life.

(_____), you cannot have me under your thumb. I have surrendered this matter to Jesus and He has determined your fate. You can no longer attack me, you are attacking him and he’s never lost a battle. You may not stay attached to me. You may not deceive my eyes when I look at myself. You may not lie to my mind with phrases of harm. You are blocked. I cast down every attempt of my imagination to view myself wrongfully and will now see myself through the lens of Jesus Christ. Go!
